

Terms and Conditions

The Board Support Package comes with full source code for all drivers and OAL code.

The BSP source code costs $300US payable via PayPal only. The Paypal account is linked to my email (dvescovi@tampabay.rr.com).

I require a signed NDA before I can release the code.

The BSP source code is supplied "AS IS". There are no warranties expressed or implied.

The BSP comes with "NO SUPPORT" although I will help with any install issues if needed.

No updates are included in the purchase price. I may be making updates periodically but there is no set schedule. If a new release does become available existing customers can purchase the latest release at half price ($150US).

Microsoft runtime licenses are NOT included in the purchase price.

Please respect the terms and do not post any code on line.
